

During this meeting the followings have been discussed and reviewed:-

1. Yee Chan (何美儀) class of 57---浩社 has sponsored $300 for 2009.

The committee will write her an appreciation note & post the sponsorships on our website.

She has also submitted some old photos & documents for the use of our 2010

Global Reunion magazine publication. The items will be returned.

All alumni members are reminded to submit suitable items to Yam Tong Tam for selection.

Comprehensive representation from all classes will make it more complete.

2. A separate account has been set up for the exclusive use of 2010 Global Reunion :-

“Tak Ming Alumni Association of Eastern Canada Trust “.

All transactions pertaining to the global reunion will be handled through this account.

3. A new money order will be issued and sent to Bill Chu again regarding the flower arrangement. The previous one apparently was lost in mail. Our apology to Bill Chu.
4. Two new members have been added to our list. Welcome to the Tak Ming family.
5. Our website banner has been getting new formats all the time but our chairman wants more. Looks like Jock Seto will continue to have his sleepless nights!
Considerable efforts has been made to make our website more attractive to visit.
6. Site & permit for the summer BBQ will be followed up by Michael Tang.
7. The next meeting will be on Friday May 15, 2009 at John Lee's office.

- The 5th Global Reunion flag's design has been added with wordings going around the original design stating Toronto, Canada to reflect its global essence.
- Beaver Yok-Sang Choi (蔡旭生---善社 class of 77) will be attending our Meetings for a few sessions before he decide of what he can be of service to the Committee. Whatever he chooses to do, we will all welcome him.
- Century Palace Chinese Restaurant has been chosen for our Global Reunion.
(398 Ferrier St., Markham, Ontario, Canada L3R2Z5 Tel:-905-415-1988.)
The maximum number of attendance has now been set and we have to work on contingency plan to “refuse” applications once the limit has been reached.
- Thanks to Allan Mok of TMAA-Western Canada, our 2010 Global Reunion survey forms has been distributed and send back to us at their Mar 7, 2009 Vancouver gathering. Many were interested even at this early stage. It is very encouraging. Names of the interested parties will be posted on the website.
- Every class' representative should contact their classmates worldwide and come up with an estimate of own class's total attendance for the global reunion.
- The 3 days tour's itinerary has been merged with the 5 days tour so that members can depart after 3 days from the group and return to Toronto if they want to. Other tour companies' offers are also being studied.
According to Tog Leung, there is a new exciting 7 days tours. Details to follow.

- Bag and cap design will be worked on by Antony Kam and he will contact the corresponding factory in China to make them.
- One minor but special dedicated performance has been approved and it will be worked on starting from now one year ahead to ensure top quality .

More major performance will be investigated in order to provide a better atmosphere for the evening.

Details of all performances will not be disclosed for suspense effects.

- Since the restaurant has been chosen, hotel arrangement will be based on this factor. More details to follow.
- The quantity , the quality and the methods of draws has been discussed.
- A special CD or DVD to be distributed at the event has been discussed.
